

Look at the snowman below and then draw the missing things on the picture. You can use this as the front of a card for a special person who deserves a special card.

